ABOUT ME

I am a second-year undergraduate at NIBM (Colombo 7), pursuing a BSc (Hons) Computer Science with Software Engineering. I am currently seeking an internship to enhance my development skills and gain practical industry experience.

I am particularly interested in Frontend Development and UI/UX Engineering, with a passion for building interactive, responsive, and user-friendly digital applications. I enjoy transforming ideas into functional and visually appealing products. As a fast learner with strong attention to detail, I am motivated to contribute creatively and effectively to a dynamic development team while continuously improving my skills.
